

ACE ASSESSING SERVICES

RESUME : CARYL GORMLIE

I commencing employment with the Commonwealth Bank at head office in Adelaide, in 1974, working in customer service positions until a move to Perth in 1977.

At various branches around the metro area in Perth, I worked in positions including telling, customer service, clerical and loans assistant. Relief positions I filled included Supervisor and Service Centre Manager.

In 1987 I successfully applied for a permanent Supervisor position which I held for 3 years. This entailed supervising up to 10 staff, Customer Relations, Cash Control, Reporting and Finance Lending.

1990 saw me receive a promotion to Senior Supervisor, with similar duties to Supervisor.

I resigned from the Bank in 1992 to start a family.

In August 1995 partner Steve Marshall became an independent assessor, and I took on the position of Office Administrator, of what has become a successful, well known and highly regarded assessing company.
